

How Would Jesus Vote for President?

Herbert W Armstrong

Jesus Christ's message was concerned with the government of nations. Christians are those who follow Christ, here's what He would do.

The presidential campaign is on full blast in the United States. The issue of survival of the nation will fall squarely on the shoulders of the next president.

Other important elections have recently occurred or will occur shortly, in other nations around the world.

World war threatens to explode in The Middle East and other "hot spots" Frightful nuclear war! War that means the annihilation of civilization. The world this minute is in grave danger. The issue is a matter of government!

Few realize it because they do not hear it today, but the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Gospel Jesus brought from God and preached, was a message about government!

Christ was interested in GOVERNMENT

Yes, Jesus was interested in government. His message was about a government to rule the world and bring us WORLD peace! In this momentous presidential year, what would Jesus Christ do, for instance, about the upcoming U.S. election if He were native-born American?

Would He vote for Walter Mondale? Would He use His influence to keep the Reagan administration at the helm in this crisis?

Many of you have undoubtedly read the book In His Steps by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon. It has been one of the all-time best-sellers. It is the story of an entire congregation that set out to do, in all circumstances daily, just as Jesus would do—to "follow His steps," as we are admonished by Peter.

My only criticism of the book is that its characters, like most people who think they follow Jesus, acted as they supposed Jesus would act instead of studying the Bible to find out how He did act.

The apostle Paul said "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me" (Galatians 2:20, Authorized Version). He admonished, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ JESUS" (Philippians 2.5).

A person is not really a Christian unless he follows Christ—acts as Christ would act—unless Christ is living His life in him.

What would JESUS do in this crucial election?

To understand what Jesus would do we must take a quick overview of the governments of this world from its foundation until now. This is necessary for a true perspective. We are prone to view politics, government and world events from the standpoint of this present world.

How it all started

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth (Genesis 1:1). In rulership over this earth God sent a cherub who sealed up the sum total of perfection, wisdom and beauty. His throne was in Eden. He was ruler over a peaceful world populated by beings superior to humans spirit beings called angels (Ezekiel 28:12-15).

But as this brilliant shining, "star of the dawn"—Lucifer—contemplated his glory, pride lifted him up, ambition seized him and suddenly he became dissatisfied with a rulership limited to one single planet.

He became jealous of God. set his heart to rival the eternal Creator Himself and left this plane in a war of conquest, in which a third of the angels followed him, attempting to conquer and rule the universe (Isaiah 14:12-15, Revelation 12.4). But he was cast back down to earth in defeat, disqualified even as earth ruler, though not to be dethroned until a successor was both qualified and inaugurated into office.

Just as the sins of the antediluvian world brought physical destruction to the earth by the Flood—just as the fornication of Sodom and Gomorrah brought physical destruction and chaos to those cities by fire—just as the sins of the present evil world have doomed it to physical destruction once again by fire so the sins of the angels caused the face of the earth to suffer great violence and it became chaotic, in confusion, waste and empty (Genesis 1:2).

First chance at world rule

Then in six days God Almighty brought order out of chaos, created the present vegetable and animal life and created upon earth a new race, the race of human mortals.

Adam was given rule over the lower species—animals. Lucifer, a cherub, had been given rule over angels. But, while humans were made a little lower in status than angels, they were made in the image of God with possibilities, through conversion, of being born of God and changed into immortal spirit beings, higher in order than angels.

In the Garden of Eden was the tree of life, symbolic of the Holy Spirit of God Himself, by which Adam could have been raised to this higher immortal and divine level.

First, Adam was given opportunity to qualify as world ruler. He could have become successor to the former Lucifer, now renamed Satan (meaning “adversary, rival, aggressor”), Adam was put to the test to determine whether he would obey God and prove able to rule with God's laws.

In the fateful test with Satan, Adam disobeyed God, accepted the rule, of Satan over him yielded to human pride, lust and greed.

Thus he placed himself and his children under the rule of Satan. He failed to overthrow Satan, he failed to prove he could obey God and carry out God's government over those God should have placed under him.

Had Adam obeyed God and proved able to defeat Satan in this test, he could have partaken of the tree of Life, he would have been begotten of God, later born of God, changed from mortal human to immortal and Divine God of the very Family—the Kingdom—of God! All earth's mortals, as his children, would have been under his rule. He would have become world ruler forever! But Adam placed himself and his children under the rule of SATAN.

Adam was driven from the Garden of Eden lest he take of the tree of life and gain immortality (Genesis 3:22). Thus he never received immortality, which is the gift of God by and through His Holy Spirit.

Satan thus retained his rulership, through invisible sway of influence, temptation and deception, over the world.

How our present system started

Just how Satan manipulated human mortals in the ways of government on earth during the first 1,600 or 1,700 years, there is no historic record. We know merely that with very few exceptions, humans under Satan's invisible sway followed the course of human passions, the wickedness of man was great on the earth and God destroyed all but eight souls by the flood.

Noah and his descendants should have learned their lesson, but they didn't.

Satan found in one of the great-grandsons of Noah, Nimrod, the grandson of Ham, a very able and powerful man who could be used politically. Through Satan's influence, instilling great ambition through greed and pride, this Nimrod organized the people into a system of human government by which man ruled over man contrary to the principles established by God.

Such government never could be good or bring blessings to humanity, but the Eternal purposed to permit man to learn that lesson by hard experiences. We are learning it still, and haven't learned it yet.

Now notice how the present world's society became organized. Nimrod organized the present world's first government—the city of Babylon. Later he organized Nineveh and other cities. He instituted the system of regimentation, whereby one or a few at the top, by directing their efforts, profit from the sweat and labor of others.

Thus the Babylonish system of government was started. Soon there were many cities, each ruled by a king.

Then an ambitious king, swayed by Satan's philosophy, seeking more worlds to conquer, organized a portion of his manpower into a fighting force and by aggression ruled over adjoining cities. Thus nations were born, and then empires.

This Babylonish principle of government, intertwined with economic manipulation, has ruled the world ever since. It has ruled under various forms—whether called oligarchy, monarchy, dictatorship, autocracy, democracy communism, or Nazism—but it's the same old BABYLONISH PRINCIPLE under slightly different modes of administration. And this is the origin of what we call CIVILIZATION.

Its forms of administration have undergone change, but its basic principle has remained the same—competition and strife based upon greed and vanity.

Regardless of the form in which it appears, it is a system based upon exploitation of the people, aggression, regimentation, delusion and deception. And the entire system is founded on the idea of huddling people together in crowded cities.

Since it is the system of strife and competition, each of the four phases of this civilization—political, economic, religious and social—has striven constantly to dominate and rule.

In ancient Rome the politicians ruled over the church, business and society. Then after A.D. 554, the church ruled over the state, business and society. In America, where we are supposed to rule ourselves, it has been a constant struggle for dominance between big business and the politicians.

In Russia today a small group of atheistic Marxists have set up a dictatorship of the proletariat inducing the laboring class to support this dictatorship for the benefit of this one class.

But regardless of the particular form of administration, this civilization that holds the entire world in its organized grip today is the same old Babylonish system started at the original Babylon by Nimrod!

Babylon means "CONFUSION." Competition and strife have produced confusion in the world. And God is not the author of confusion (1 Corinthians 14:33).

Should Christians strive to make this a BETTER WORLD?

Now we come to the reason for needing a true perspective.

Most churchmen today, viewing everything from the perspective of this WORLD TODAY, blindly assume this is God's world. They see certain forces of evil in it, and these they feel they must oppose. They see the Christian duty to be that of working to make this a better world.

That concept is a wrong viewpoint altogether.

This is not a world of God's making. This is Satan's world! Satan is the invisible god of this world. He is the author of this organization, its basic philosophies, its systems of government, business, society—yes, and RELIGIONS!

This thing we boast of as civilization is in actual fact, Satan's handiwork, not God's! Strange as it may seem, that is true! All nations—not just the heathen powers, but all nations, including ours—are DECEIVED, swayed, led, by Satan (Revelation 12:9, 18:3, 20:2-3). The Bible speaks of this world as "this present evil world" (Galatians 1:4, AV).

Why Jesus Christ came!

Into such a world, in His own due time, God sent forth His own Son, born of the human virgin Mary.

WHY did Jesus come? To get into politics, to strive against the forces of evil in this world, to make this a better world for humanity to live in?

What was His message? Certainly not a Gospel merely about Himself—a Gospel of merely accepting Him and then, as part of this world, helping to make it better!

When Jesus reached the approximate age of 30 He was baptized and anointed with the Holy Spirit as the Christ. But before He preached a word—before He could even enter upon His ministry—He, like the first Adam, had to meet Satan in the greatest contest in all eternity!

It was a contest for the rulership of all the earth. Jesus Christ met and conquered Satan by the Word of God. Satan, like His ministers today, quoted Scripture but he twisted and perverted its meaning. Jesus quoted Scripture, accepted it to mean what it says, overcame Satan by obeying it!

Jesus withstood Satan's temptations, rejected his deceptions, refused to obey him, conquered him by obeying God!

Then He commanded Satan. "Away with you!"—and the devil obeyed and slunk away!

Then and there Jesus Christ qualified to succeed Satan as RULER OVER ALL THE EARTH! But the time had not yet come for Him to be inaugurated into office. First, He had to return to the throne of God and receive God's official authorization.

God had allotted ONE Millennial Week—that is, a period of seven thousand-year "days"—for the accomplishment of His divine purpose in humanity on this earth. That divine purpose is the creation of righteous, spiritual sons of God.

God allotted the first six of these thousand-year periods for Satan's labor of deceiving the human race—6,000 years in which man is permitted, if he chooses, to suffer from the “labor” of sin. When the first Adam failed to depose Satan, God extended the duration of Satan's dominion over the earth for 6,000 years. This was necessary for the accomplishment of God's great purpose.

Then, as “in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed” (Exodus 31:17), even so in the seventh millennium, humanity is to “rest” from sin and those converted are to enter into God's spiritual rest. In this coming Millennium, Satan shall not do any work—that is, his work of deceiving the world!

Then Jesus will return to earth, this time in all His power and glory as King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

But in God's great plan, He has purposed that Jesus shall rule-by and through many saints then made immortal. They shall form the world-ruling kingdom—the Kingdom of God—that shall rule over all the mortal nations of earth. Time had to be allowed for their conversion.

Jesus preached GOVERNMENT

So, after meeting and conquering Satan, Jesus devoted three and a half years to teaching the Gospel to His disciples. His Gospel—the only true Gospel of Jesus Christ—is not what most people think today. Few have heard it, today!

It was and is a Gospel of good government! The word gospel means “good news.” And what Jesus preached—the message He brought to mankind from God was the good news of the coming GOVERNMENT OF God—the coming world ruling government that shall overthrow, blast out of existence and rule in place of every present government on earth!

Yes, Jesus Christ said to Pilate that He was born to be a King! He, Himself, is coming again as WORLD KING!

And His Gospel was merely, as one might say, His political platform for His Kingdom, He revealed the way to enter it as one of its immortal citizens—the way of salvation. He revealed its laws.

What Jesus taught was that this present world, with its governments, its religions, its economies, its society, is an evil world—it is Satan's world—it is a world in competition against and AT WAR AGAINST—His Coming Kingdom—THE WORLD TOMORROW!

Did Jesus come to make this a BETTER WORLD?

No, Jesus did not enter into THIS WORLD'S politics! He called His disciples out of this present evil world—out of all its customs and philosophies and ways—to a life of SEPARATION from the world.

Jesus said to His disciples, “Follow Me!” And one cannot follow Him and also follow this present world! He did not mean for Christians to go out of the world, physically. He knew they must live in it, but He taught that they should not be of it.

In his final prayer for His disciples, Jesus said to His Father “I do not pray that you should take them out of the world, but that you should keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world” (John 17:15-16).

Thus Jesus' disciples live in this present evil world as though they were foreigners, here merely as the guests of the nation where they reside, as ambassadors for Christ and His coming Kingdom, here as representatives of His coming Kingdom, not of any of this world's governments.

As the Word of God reveals in II Corinthians 5:17-20: “If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation: old things have passed away... therefore we are ambassadors for Christ.”

The United States sends an ambassador to the Kremlin. He resides for the time in Moscow. The Christian in the world today is in the same relative position as the American ambassador in the Soviet Union.

He is not a communist. He does not regard the Soviet as his government, and he knows well it is a government mortally opposed to his government. He does not serve the Soviet government, nor enter into its politics, nor devote his time in Moscow to trying to eradicate the evils he sees in their system, or in making their state a better state, or voting, or entering their army or fighting for their cause.

Yet, he subjects himself to all their rules and regulations that in any way concern him or his life while there. If they drive automobiles on the left side of the street, he conforms to their regulations. He does not oppose them: he is SUBJECT TO them while there, endeavoring to cause them to like him so as to better represent the interests of his government, the United States.

Jesus taught His disciples to render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's. Specifically He was referring to payment of taxes. If the government levies taxes, pay them.

The Bible teaching for the Christian is to be subject to the powers that be in this world, but on the other hand, Christians shall obey God rather than man.

The true Christian will so conduct himself as to be highly regarded by the powers of government where he lives. He will be regarded by them as a good citizen.

He will appreciate the privileges, advantages and opportunities extended. He will regard himself as the paying guest of the country where he resides, and he will act with due courtesy, submission to its rules and regulations, insofar as they do not conflict with the commands of God and submission to their penalty where they do.

But the true Christian is one who follows Christ, and Christ did not vote!

Jesus did not try to reform Caesar. He did not try to make this a better world, Rather, He preached the doctrine of a radically different world to come—and He called His followers out of all participation in this present evil world and to allegiance to HIS KINGDOM that is to come.

Citizenship in heaven

But His world is the world tomorrow! His Kingdom, He told Pilate, is not of this world—that is, of this AGE, this present time. This is Satan's world and Christ did not come to reform Satan or improve Satan's handiwork, but to save His followers from Satan and his system.

Since God's Kingdom is not literally set up as yet, the true Christian's citizenship is now reserved in heaven (I Peter 1:4, Ephesians 2:19).

Christians are called to be separate from the world and all its affiliations, whether racial, political, economic or religious (II Corinthians 6:17). They are not to live by the philosophies, customs and ways of this world, but by EVERY WORD OF GOD (Luke 4:4). Jesus taught us not to live by traditions of the present civilization, but by God's laws, and He taught here that those who disobey this teaching WORSHIP Him IN VAIN.

Yes, thousands call themselves Christians, think they are converted, believe in Christ, worship Him, but worship Him in vain, following the course of this world and its customs and ways, instead of the commandments of God (Mark 7:7-9)!

Jesus said for the Christian to seek first the Kingdom of God (Matthew 6:33), and He also said we cannot give allegiance to and serve two kingdoms (verse 24).

How and when Christians are to help run government

In the prophecy of Daniel 7 and especially in verses 17-18, 21-22 and 27, we find revealed how and when Christians are to take part in the running of the government. In this prophecy Daniel is shown the empires of this world from his day until the Kingdom of God. First was the Chaldean Empire, to be followed by the Persian, the Grecian and the Roman.

There is now to be one more resurrection of the Roman Empire—a United States of Europe now presently forming.

But finally, at Christ's Second Coming, “the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.”

These present governments are to run their course “until the...time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.” That time has not yet come. Until then Christians are to obey God and be subject to the powers that be.

When Jesus comes again, it is proclaimed, “The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdom of the Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever” (Revelation 11:15). Then it is, as Jesus has said, “He who overcomes, and keeps My works until the end, to him will I give power over the nations—he shall rule them” (Revelation 2:26-27). The smashing of the present governments of the world is pictured in Daniel 2.34-35, 44.

Then Satan shall be shorn of power to rule the world (Revelation 20:1-4). His qualified successor, Jesus Christ, shall then be inaugurated into office. Then begins the Sabbath Millennium of Jesus Christ's reign—when He shall set His hand again to save Israel and the world.

Jesus would not take part

What, then, would Jesus do in this time of presidential election? He would WARN true Christians, “COME OUT of her [this world's governments, this Babylonish system], my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues” (Revelation 18:4)!

The plagues of God are soon to fall upon this world and all who choose to remain part of it. JESUS CALLS YOU OUT!

What would Jesus do? HE WOULD BE TOO BUSY PROCLAIMING THE GOOD NEWS OF HIS OWN COMING

WORLD-RULING KINGDOM, and the way of salvation, to take any part whatsoever in the politics of this present evil world, or in any man-made form of government that is DOOMED very soon to be destroyed and replaced by the theocratic government of THE KINGDOM OF GOD!

Our mission is, as ambassadors of Christ—as advance emissaries of His KINGDOM—to WARN the world of its plight and present danger, to proclaim to all nations the good news of the KINGDOM OF GOD!
